
Title: OES

Author: blotted out

All things die. Everything breaks down and decays..
Nothing is spared the caress of Entropy. These are the facts of Reality as most know it. There are those, however; who know otherwise.
These entities are aware that if you serve Entropy then it serves you as well. These dark souls are known by many as Necromancers. The practitioners of the Black Art have an inkling of the truth but even they fall short of it. The true inheritors of Entropy are the immortal Undead.

The restless dead are possessed of the very essence of Entropy. They are its agents, servants, worshippers and lovers. To embrace Entropy is to exist in its favor, indefinitely, until Oblivion swallows all. Some have a choice in this process, while others come about it... unwillingly.

Welcome to the Order of the Ebon Skull. This is a role-playing intensive guild of Necromancers, Priests and various Undead. We strive to implement an evil role-playing aspect for the Atlantic Shard.
We also actively seek information and perform research on Pagan Magic, with special interest towards Necromancy.
The Order of the Ebon

Skull attempts to add a classical villain role to Ultima Online. Basically we are neither a pure role-playing nor a pure PvP guild but the best of both.
